

Clifford W. Smith, Jr.

Course: Corporate Financial Policy

*Louise and Henry Epstein Professor of Business Administration and Professor of Finance and Economics, University of Rochester, USA
Ph.D., Economics, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill*

Clifford W. Smith has served as president of the Risk Theory Society, president of the Financial Management Association National Honor Society, vice president for Global Services of the Financial Management Association International, vice president of the International Economics and Finance Society, a member of the board of advisers of the International Association of Financial Engineers, and a member of the board of directors of the Financial Management Association and the Southern Finance Association. He has research interests in the fields of corporate financial policy, derivative securities, and financial intermediation.

He has published 16 books and more than 90 articles in leading finance and economics journals and is an advisory editor for several important journals. He has received the Superior Teaching Award 19 times from students in the executive MBA program and 10 times from students in the MBA program. In 2003, he received the F.M.A. Fellows Award by the Financial Management Association International. He was named Distinguished Scholar by the Southern Finance Association in 2000 and Distinguished International Visiting Scholar by the British Accounting Association in 1991. In 1986, he was given the first Special Award for a Perfect Teaching Rating by the school; in 1983, he was chosen a University Mentor in recognition of his scholarship and teaching.