

Filip Abraham

Course: Economics of International Business

*Professor of International Economics, K.U. Leuven, Belgium
Ph.D., Economics, University of Michigan*

Filip Abraham is vice-president and member of the board of directors at K.U. Leuven, responsible for economics and business, law, social sciences and humanities. Previously he was the dean of the faculty of Economics and Business. He is a professor in international and European economics and business in Leuven, the Vlerick Leuven Gent Management School and the Rochester-Bern Executive MBA in Switzerland. He has taught courses at Erasmus Universiteit Rotterdam, the Kiel Institute for the World Economy, the European Commission, the University of Vienna and Nyenrode University. He held temporary positions at the International Monetary Fund and the University of Michigan.

Filip Abraham's expertise lies in European integration, international trade and international business. He is the author of several books and many articles in international journals. For several years he worked as an expert for the European Commission in various research contracts.

Filip Abraham is chairman or member of the board of several organisations and institutions. He advises companies, public and private institutions.