

James A. Brickley

Courses: Managerial Economics / Organization Theory and Control

*Gleason Professor of Business Administration; Professor of Economics and Management and of Finance; Area Coordinator, Competitive and Organizational Strategy, University of Rochester, USA
Ph.D., Finance, University of Oregon*

James A. Brickley has been a consultant to major corporations and law firms on organizational, franchising, valuations, and antitrust issues. He has also held various positions in government in the state of Oregon. He has research and teaching interests in the economics of organizations, corporate governance and compensation policy, corporate finance, franchising and banking.

His papers have been published in several journals, among them the Journal of Business, the Journal of Law and Economics, and the Journal of Finance. The fifth edition of Managerial Economics and Organizational Architecture (Brickley, Clifford W. Smith Jr., and Jerold L. Zimmerman) was published by McGraw-Hill/Irwin in 2009. Brickley, Smith, Zimmerman, and Janice Willett wrote a trade version of this text titled Designing Organizations to Create Value, published by McGraw-Hill in 2003.

In 2002, three of Brickley's published papers received the Journal of Financial Economics All Star Paper Award (based on number of citations through 2001). Brickley is associate editor of finance and accounting journals and was recently recognized as one of the top 100 most cited academics in finance literature over the past 25 years.