

Luc Sels

Course: Human Resource Management and Leadership

Dean of the Faculty of Business and Economics, K.U. Leuven, Belgium, and Research Fellow at Vlerick Leuven Gent Management School.

Ph.D. in Social Sciences, K.U. Leuven

Luc Sels is Dean of the Faculty of Business and Economics at the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven (Belgium). Besides, he participates in the Research Centre of Organisation Studies (Faculty of Business and Economics) and is Research Fellow at the Vlerick Leuven Gent Management School. He is teaching courses on HRM, HR flows, organisation and job design and serves as member of the Association Council for Research, the Research Council Lessius Hogeschool, as well as of the editorial board of Kwartaalschrift Economie.

His primary substantive research interests center around active ageing and corporate demography, individual and organisational career management, the measurement of features and content of psychological contracts, the relationship between investments in HR management and firm performance and features of strong HRM systems. With his research, he was honored and awarded several times for best papers.